City Profile

Edinburgh, Scotland's capital is a modern, dynamic city buzzing within a stunning historic setting. Convention delegates will enjoy strolling the streets lined with modern, medieval and Georgian architecture.

The 12th century Edinburgh Castle dominates the stunning skyline. From Castle Rock, the ancient Old Town rambles down the spine of the Royal Mile to the Palace of Holyroodhouse, surrounded by lush Princes Street Gardens.

A famously friendly city, Edinburgh boasts a lively social scene, top-rate restaurants, and animated pubs. A city of festivals, culture and the arts, with a dazzling social scene, Edinburgh is Scotland's most popular conference destination.

Bureau Profile

As representative of the business tourism industry for the Edinburgh area, Edinburgh Convention Bureau's impressive track record in servicing the needs of events and meetings organisers spans over a decade.

During this time, Edinburgh Convention Bureau has developed and adapted its services, with customer focus being the guiding force of all its activities. The highly motivated and experienced team at Edinburgh Convention Bureau are committed to excellence and consistency in service delivery, in accordance with clients' expectations of Edinburgh, Scotland's top international conference city.
